± Story Time

There was a time when storybooks were the only means of entertainment for children. A decade or two ago, kids spend their time reading stories and role playing their favorite characters from the stories. However, time have changed now- in the age of internet, kids spend most of their time playing games on smartphones or watching cartoon or videos on Youtube. But if you want your kids to take a break from screens and experience your childhood, you can read short stories to them. By narrating stories to your kids, you will impart wisdom to them and also spend much needed quality time with them. We have a collection of some popular short stories with moral values that you can read to your kids.

(Read and enjoy the given stories)

± Rhyme Time

Repetition of rhyme and rhythm can help children to develop language and communication skills. When actions are linked to words it helps boost motor skills and improves rhythm and movement.

Kindly make your child learn and recite the given rhymes.

WISHING YOU ALL HAPPY TIMES TOGETHER!!

THE THIRSTY CROW

One hot day, a thirsty crow flew all over the fields looking for water. For a long time, she could not find any. She felt very weak, almost giving up hope.

Suddenly, she saw a water jug below her. She flew straight down to see if there was any water inside. Yes, she could see some water inside the jug!

The crow tried to push her head into the jug. Sadly, she found that the neck of the jug was too narrow. Then she tried to push the jug down for the water to flow out. She found that the jug was too heavy.

The crow thought hard for a while. Then looking around her, she saw some pebbles. She suddenly had a good idea. She started picking up the pebbles one by one, dropping each into the jug. As more and more pebbles filled the jug, the water level kept rising. Soon it was high enough for the crow to drink. Her plan had worked!

If you try hard enough, you may soon find an answer to your problem.

THE MILKMAID

A milkmaid was on her way to the market to sell some milk from her cow. As she carried the large jug of milk on top of her head, she began to dream of all the things she could do after selling the milk.

"With that money, I'll buy a hundred chicks to rear in my backyard. When they are fully grown, I can sell them at a good price at the market."

As she walked on, she continued dreaming. "Then I'll buy two young goats and rear them on the grass close by. When they are fully grown, I can sell them at an even better price!"

Still dreaming, she said to herself, "Soon, I'll be able to buy another cow, and I will have more milk to sell. Then I shall have even more money..."

With these happy thoughts, she began to skip and jump. Suddenly she tripped and fell. The jug broke and all the milk spilt onto the ground.

No more dreaming now, she sat down and cried.

Do not count your chickens before they are hatched.

THE HARE AND THE TORTOISE

A tortoise one day met a hare who made fun of her.
"My, my, you move so slowly, you will never get far!"

The tortoise, upset by the hare's manner, said,
"Let's have a race and see who is faster."

The hare laughed and said, "You must be joking! But all right, we'll see who reaches the other side of the hill first." Off he ran, leaving the tortoise far behind.

After a while, the hare stopped to wait for the tortoise to come long. He waited and waited till he felt sleepy. "I might as well take a nap," he thought. "Even if she catches up with me, I can easily win the race." So he lay down under a shady tree and closed his eyes.

When the tortoise passed the sleeping hare, she walked on slowly but steadily. By the time the hare woke up, the tortoise was near the finishing line. He ran as fast as he could, but he could not catch up with the tortoise.

Slow and steady can win the race.

THE ANT AND THE DOVE

One hot day, an ant was searching for some water.
After walking around for some time, she came to a spring.

To reach the spring, she had to climb up a blade of grass.
While making her way up, she slipped and fell into the water.

She could have drowned if a dove up a nearby tree had not seen her. Seeing that the ant was in trouble, the dove quickly plucked off a leaf and dropped it into the water near the struggling ant. The ant moved towards the leaf and climbed up there. Soon it carried her safely to dry ground.

Just at that time, a hunter nearby was throwing out his net towards the dove, hoping to trap it.

Guessing what he was about to do, the ant quickly bit him on the heel. Feeling the pain, the hunter dropped his net. The dove was quick to fly away to safety.

One good turn deserves another.

I'm a Little Tea Pot

I'm a little teapot, short and stout

Here's my handle (place hand on hip)

Here's my spout (stick your other arm out straight)

When I get all steamed up, hear me shout

Just tip me over and pour me out (lean over with your spout arm)

Head Shoulders Knees and Toes

This fun nursery rhyme has gestures as well. Touch each body part as you sing the song for more interactive learning! Kids will love it.

Head, shoulders, knees and toes,
Knees and toes.

Head, shoulders, knees and toes,
Knees and toes.

And eyes, and ears, and mouth, and nose.

Head, shoulders, knees and toes,
Knees and toes.

(Repeat)

Teddy bear, Teddy Bear

This nursery rhyme has lots of actions so make sure you follow along to make it even more fun!

Teddy bear, teddy bear, Turn around!
Teddy bear, teddy bear, Touch the ground!
Teddy bear, teddy bear, Jump up high!
Teddy bear, teddy bear, Touch the sky!

Teddy bear, teddy bear, Bend down low!
Teddy bear, teddy bear, Touch you toes!
Teddy bear, teddy bear, Turn out the light!
Teddy bear, teddy bear, Say good night!

This Is My Father

This is my father
Good and kind,
This is my mother
With a gentle mind.
This is my brother,
Grown so tall,
This is my sister
Playing with her doll.
This is the baby yet to grow,
This is the family standing in a row.
