

HOLIDAY HOMEWORK

As the holidays have begun, it's time for you to have some fun,
It is the time to read an amazing book and help your mommy cook,
You will make new friends and play a lot of games,
Spend time with them and know their names,
You will sleep on time and rise with the bright sun,
As the holidays have begun, it's time for you to have some fun.

Dear parents,

Vacations are a time to rejuvenate and revive. A balance therefore is required between recreation and work to ensure a break that is productive as well as relaxing. Keep this in mind we have planned some activities and project for our children to enhance their learning skills in a fun filled way.

Everyday activities:

- Make a routine for your child to eat, play, go outdoors, study, watch T.V. etc.
- Get up early in the morning and view the sunrise.
- Go for a nature walk.
- Feel and breathe the fresh air and do few breathing exercises.
- Hear the melodious chirping of the birds.
- Water the plants and feed the birds
- Help your parents in their household works.

Must do:

- Encourage your child to eat healthy food and drink lots of water during summer break.
- Converse in English with your ward.

Make your home a place for reading:

- Choose a quiet time for reading to your child as in before a nap, bedtime, or after dinner.
- Let your child select the book for you to read.
- Invite your child to read with you.
- Hold the book in a way so that your child can see the pictures. Take time to look and talk about the pictures.
- Don't just read the story but make it meaningful by adding voice modulations, expressions and gestures to it.
- Understand that reading begins at home, so make your home a print rich environment.
- Read aloud to your child every day.
